

Morning Lesson

EVERYBODY HAS A BAD DAY NOW AND THEN.

Luke 10:38-42

INTRO:

1. Everyone has a bad day every now and then.
2. Illus.: Construction worker's accident report.

I. WHEN MARTHA HAD A BAD DAY.

A. The day started well. Luke 10:38, 39

1. Jesus came to her house in Bethany.
2. Mary wasn't helping her and it began to get to her. Acts 22:3; John 11:32; John 12:3
3. Like Martha, we can invite Jesus into our house every day and each day can be enjoyed.

Rev. 3:20; Psalm 118:24

B. The day took a turn for the worse. Luke 10:40

1. Martha got distracted.
2. It isn't hard for a good day to turn bad.

C. The day got worse then better. Luke 10:41, 42

1. Jesus not rebuked Martha, but I have no doubt that his tone was kind and love was in his words.

John 11:5

2. A bad day becomes a good day when we learn from the bad things that happen.

II. WHEN WE HAVE BAD DAYS.

A. Recognize that everyone has a bad day now and then.

B. Don't blame others for our bad day.

C. Recognize that there are consequences as we react to what happens to us.

D. Find comfort in the fact that a bad day is not the last word in our lives – unless we make it so.

E. Determine to learn from bad days what is really important in life.

CONC:

1. We will all have bad days, but they can become the best days of our lives if we will learn on these days that we must put spiritual things first.
2. One thing is essential and can never be taken away from us: our commitment to the Lord.
